PLANNED GIVING MYTHS

MYTH: Planned giving only applies to donors of a certain age.
FACT: Planned giving is available and encouraged for donors of any age.

MYTH: Only wealthy donors can leave a legacy gift.
FACT: Using various assets, anyone can make a planned giving donation.

MYTH: The donor must have a will in order to donate.
FACT: There are various ways to donate using your retirement plan, life insurance or estate.

MYTH: Planned giving is too complex and time consuming.
FACT: A simple meeting with your lawyer, life insurance representative or retirement plan administrator is all you need to leave your legacy.

MYTH: I want to continue making my annual donations and cannot afford to do both.
FACT: We encourage you to use your various assets as platforms to make affordable planned gifts and continue your annual donations.

MYTH: The donor must have an estate in order to donate.
FACT: There are various ways to donate using your will, retirement plan or life insurance.